Treasurers currently collecting a contingency fee shall be eligible to contract on a contingency fee basis. Effective July 1, 2015, any treasurer collecting a contingency fee shall retain only the expenses of collection, and the excess collection shall be divided between the state and the locality in the same manner as if the collection had been done by the attorney for the Commonwealth."

Explanation:

(This amendment restores language approved by the 2015 General Assembly and modifies the language to permit treasurers currently collecting on a contingency fee basis to continue to do so. An identical amendment is included in Senate Bill 30 in Item 73.)

Department of Taxation

Language

Language:

Page 74, line 15, strike "Not set out."

Page 74, line 15, insert Item 270 from Chapter 665 and insert new paragraph after existing language:

“W.1. Every corporation having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without the Commonwealth that has Virginia taxable income before apportionment equal to or in excess of $50 million on the return filed for Taxable Year 2014 must submit information to the Department of Taxation showing the computation of its Taxable Year 2014 sales factor using market-based sourcing.

2. The required information shall be submitted to the Department of Taxation using a form and containing the information prescribed by the Tax Commissioner. The information shall reconcile to information reported on the Virginia income tax return of the corporation provided, however, that when an affiliated group of corporations elected to file a combined return under § 58.1-442, the information shall be reported for each affiliate included in the combined return if the aggregate taxable income before apportionment is equal to or in excess of $50 million in the manner prescribed by the Tax Commissioner.

3. The required information must be submitted to the Department of Taxation on or before June 1, 2016, which date shall not be extended.

4. Any corporation required to submit such information to the Department of Taxation that does so on or before June 1, 2016 shall, upon request, receive an allocation of $2,500 from the Department of Taxation. Any corporation required to submit such information to the Department of Taxation that fails to do so on or before June 1, 2016, or that fails to submit such information accurately shall be subject to a penalty of $5,000. The Tax Commissioner shall have the authority to waive such penalty upon a determination that the requirement would cause an undue hardship. All requests for waiver shall be transmitted to the Tax Commissioner in writing. For purposes of this section, a finding of “undue hardship” shall not be based on a comparison of the compliance cost to $2,500.”

Explanation:

(This amendment sets out Item 270 and adds a paragraph containing market-based sourcing study language inadvertently omitted in the introduced Caboose Bill (SB 29). This language is included in the introduced budget for the 2016-18 biennium (SB 30).

"Any remaining general fund balance on June 30, 2016, for this purpose, shall be carried forward into the subsequent fiscal year."

Explanation:

(This amendment provides $800,000 from the general fund the second year to fund Sterilization payments to victims of the past state-sanctioned practice. The $400,000 provided for FY 2016 has been expended. This amendment adds $800,000 so the agency can continue to make payments sooner than July 1. The department estimates that $1.2 million should cover all potential costs. A separate action in SB 30 removes the $800,000 from the general fund provided in the biennial budget for this purpose.)

"U.1. The Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services shall request and accept for consideration proposals, in accordance with Chapter 22.1 of the Code of Virginia, from private entities to operate and manage the Central Virginia Training Center with a primary focus on the newer facilities, and other buildings as necessary, in order to continue to serve those residents that choose to stay and receive care at the facility. In the department's request for proposals, the department shall include all relevant information, including financial information, capital assets, operational details or other information private entities may request to properly develop proposals. The proposals shall include the leasing of state property and buildings. All proposals received shall be submitted to the Public-Private Partnership Advisory Commission.2. The department shall identify any operational, financial and legal impacts associated with the private operation of the Training Center along with the leasing of such property and report such findings to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees by September 1, 2016.U. Any capital funds from bond proceeds for the construction of group homes or intermediate care facilities for the intellectually or developmentally disabled that is planned to transition individuals currently residing in the Central Virginia Training Center shall be suspended until July 1, 2017."

Explanation:

(This amendment requires the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services to request proposals related to the operation of the newer buildings at Central Virginia Training Center (CVTC) for the continued care of those residents that choose to remain. CVTC is currently slated to close in 2020, however, significant investments in the facility in recent years, along with a strong interest to stay at CVTC by the majority of residents, necessitates that the Commonwealth explore all additional options for the facility.)

"L. The Department of Social Services shall partner with Patrick Henry Family Services to implement a pilot program in the area encompassing Planning District 11 (Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Campbell Counties and the City of Lynchburg) for the temporary placements of children for children and families in crisis. The pilot program will allow a parent or legal custodian of a minor, with the assistance of Patrick Henry Family Services, to delegate to another person by a properly executed power of attorney any powers regarding care, custody, or property of the minor for a temporary placement for a period that is not greater than 90 days. The program will allow for an option of a one-time 90 day extension.

2. The department shall ensure that this pilot program meets the following specific programmatic and safety requirements outlined in 22 VAC 40-131 and 22 VAC 40-191:

(i) The pilot program organization shall meet the background check requirements described in 22 VAC 40-191.

(ii) The pilot program organization shall develop and implement written policies and procedures for governing active and closed cases, admissions, monitoring the administration of medications, prohibiting corporal punishment, ensuring that children are not subjected to abuse or neglect, investigating allegations of misconduct toward children, implementing the child's back-up emergency care plan, assigning designated casework staff, management of all records, discharge policies, and the use of seclusion and restraint (22 VAC 40-131-90).

(iii) The pilot program organization shall provide pre-service and ongoing training for temporary placement providers and staff (22 VAC 40-131-210 and 22 VAC 40-131-150).
3. The Department of Social Services shall evaluate the pilot program and determine if this model of prevention is effective. A report of the evaluation findings and recommendations shall be submitted to the Governor, the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees, and the Commission on Youth by December 1, 2017."

Explanation:

(This amendment directs the Department of Social Services to work with Patrick Henry Family Services to implement a pilot program that provides short-term custody of minors to families involved with the pilot organization. The purpose of this pilot program is to evaluate a short-term model of temporary custody for families in crisis to help prevent families from breaking up and children being moved into the foster care system.)

Explanation:

(This amendment adjusts the Lottery Proceeds transfer amount to $559.3 million based on an additional $20.3 million in anticipated profits earned for FY 2016. The primary driver of these additional revenues is the sales from the two record-setting Powerball jackpot drawings in January. A companion amendment in Item 136 reflects additional nongeneral fund and offsetting general fund amounts.)

Explanation:

(This amendment updates the estimated amount to be transferred to the general fund from the Public Education Standards of Quality/Local Real Estate Property Tax Relief Fund. These funds are derived from the 0.375 cent increase in the state sales and use tax levied pursuant to § 58.1-638, Code of Virginia, and are used to meet the Commonwealth's responsibilities for the Standards of Quality prescribed pursuant to Article VIII, Section 2, of the Constitution of Virginia. The revised estimate is based on the Department of Taxation's Midsession 2016 Standard Forecast.)
